Thank you for your application for the Parish Nurse Position at First Lutheran Church. Please offer your responses to the following statements in addition to completing the application for employment.

1. When you reflect on the responsibilities listed in the job description of a Parish Nurse at First Lutheran Church, please describe why you would be an asset to First Lutheran Church in this role:

2. How might you describe the relationship between physical health and spirituality?

3. Being a Parish Nurse not only places you in the context of being present to people's medical or physical health crises, but also present to their spiritual wrestling amid those crises. On that note, here is a scenario: You get a request to visit Jane, a First Lutheran member, at her apartment. During your visit Jane reveals that she has been diagnosed with pancreatic cancer and asks you, "Why is God doing this to me?" How might you respond to Jane?
